Dear Hiring Manager,

It is with great enthusiasm that I am applying for the position of Christmas casual (SYDNEY). I believe that my education, skills and overall character make me a wonderful candidate for this role.

I think there are several characteristics that this position needs. First, being enthusiastic to the work and having a serious working attitude. Second, must be patient, nice and professional to the customers' requests. Third, must have a good ability of communication. And these characteristics are what I have tried and asked myself to have. Also, I love facing challenges because it motivates me work even harder. I really like to share my experiences on social media, for example, xiaohongshu(a Chinese platform for users to share their shopping experiences and product reviews), which is a large trending app used popularly among young people in China, and I think I can help to do some advertising jobs in my daily life if needed in the future.

I have confidence that I can handle this role not only because my skill sets match what the job requires but also due to the enthusiasm of helping others.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to speaking with you about this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Aria Wu
